USD OFFERS TEACHING COURSE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE TEACHING OF COMPOSITION (English 196/296), a course geared toward providing teachers with practical guidelines for teaching composition and writing skills in large classrooms, will be offered by the University of San Diego Summer Session, July 5-July 27. The three unit course will be held Monday through Thursday, 1:00-4:00 in Camino 165. Dr. Dennis Clausen will be teaching the class which will be limited in enrollment to 25 students.

The course will focus on the art of teaching how to write standard English expository prose; peer-group evaluation and tutoring; the pre-writing process; the psychology of the criticism of writing; methods for conducting writing conferences and other such procedures that are directly related to the effective teaching of writing skills. Pre-requisite for the course is Advanced Composition or its equivalent. Local teachers are welcome as well as graduate and undergraduate students.

For registration and more information, please contact the Summer Session office at the University of San Diego, Founders Hall Room 108, Alcala Park, San Diego 92110, 291-6480 ext. 4524.
